GARAGE COMPANY LEASES MAIN STREET BUILDING

The Bourbon Garage & Supply Co. has leased of Mr. Dan Peed his stable on Main street, known as the "middle stable," and which extends through to Pleasant street. The building is considerably wider in the rear than in front. It will be remodeled, the box stalls will all be taken out, a concrete floor will be laid and other improvements made in order to convert it into an up-to-date garage. It is understood that the building has been leased to the company for a term of five years.

Mr. Peed will vacate the building January 1, and plans to have a sale of his livery outfit about the first of February.

MISS RAY'S PIANO CLASS GIVES DELIGHTFUL RECITAL.

The recital given Thursday evening by the pupils of Miss Betsy Ray's music class at her home on Higgins Avenue, was a most delightful occasion, and was largely attended by patrons and friends.

The beautifully appointed home was rendered even more attractive by the use of growing plants, poinsettia and holly, and was brilliantly lighted. The program was well rendered, the young pupils of this popular teacher showing the effects of her careful training and their patient study.

NOTICE.

All parties are hereby warned against the use of fireworks on the streets of Paris. It is against the law, and is most dangerous. I have notified the police to rigidly enforce the law.

DUNCAN OVERBY SUCCUMBS TO FATAL HEART ATTACK

In the presence of a number of friends with whom he had been engaged in a pleasant conversation only a few minutes before, Duncan Overby, a bartender at the saloon of Dickey & McShane, dropped dead Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock, while attending to his duties.

Death was due to an attack of heart trouble, from which he had been a sufferer for a number of years. Saturday night he was in his usual good spirits, and was apparently in good health. The only complaint he was heard to make during the day was that he had suffered from a pain in his left side, but little attention was given the ailment.

Mr. Overby had served several customers and was leaning with one hand on the bar when he suddenly fell to the floor unconscious. Several rushed to his aid, and while a physician was being summoned an effort was made to induce artificial respiration. Dr. C. G. Daugherty responded to the call, and after making a hurried examination administered to the stricken man. All efforts to revive him were without avail and in five minutes after he was stricken he expired.

Mr. Overby was one of the best known young men in this city. He was extremely popular and enjoyed a large acquaintance, and had a large circle of friends here who were shocked to learn of his untimely death. He was aged about twenty-seven years, and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Overby. One brother, Mr. Grant Overby, a member of the firm of Curtis & Overby, and a sister, Mrs. Thomas Cain, both of this city, survive.

The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Mr. J. T. Hinton, Saturday night, where it was prepared for burial, and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Cain, on West Seventh street, Sunday morning. The funeral took place from the residence yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Christian church, and the remains were interred in the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Henry Curtis, Harry O. Holt, Thos. Butler, C. B. McShane, Rutherford Moss, Wm. Shout, John Maddox and John K. Cain.

NEW YEAR'S EVE AT "STOUT'S CAFE."

The New Year's Eve celebration at Stout's Cafe will be the most elaborate ever held in Paris. The main cafe will be beautifully decorated with fresh cut flowers, as will also be the upstairs dining room. The orchestra will be first-class, and the selections played will be the latest and most popular pieces. The cabaret program will be of the best talent that can be procured in Chicago, and that at an enormous cost. The menu will be announced in Friday's Bourbon News. The affair will be on such an elaborate scale that those present will imagine that they are in little old Cincinnati or Louisville instead of Paris. A diagram of the main cafe and upper dining room is now ready and reservations will be booked in the order received. The price will be $1.50 per person.

BOURBON COUNTY LANDS ARE INCREASING IN VALUE

As shown by the most recent sales Bourbon county farm lands are increasing in value each year, and there is a great demand for the most productive soil. Clark Bascom, of Owingsville, sold the past week to James Tordine, of Harrison county, the John Hamilton farm, located on the Ruddles Mills and Millersburg turnpike, near Millersburg, and containing 143 acres, for $19,000, or about $139 per acre. Six years ago Mr. Bascom purchased the farm from the executor of the Hamilton estate at $95 per acre, and the sale just made gives him a profit of $44 per acre, or a total profit of $6,500.

Joseph Farris, jailer of Bourbon county, purchased Saturday from Waldo Jett, his farm of 60 acres, located on the Redmon pike a few miles from this city, at $125 per acre. This place is well improved and the land is very productive.

Claude Fisher, of Bourbon, sold to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cook a tract of land containing twenty acres, located on the Ruddles Mills and Cynthia pike, in Bourbon, for $4,350, or $217.50 per acre. The land adjoins the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

ANTI-SHOOTING ORDINANCE WILL BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED.

Discharging of fireworks on the streets of the city is prohibited by a city ordinance and Mayor J. T. Hinton yesterday issued strict orders to the police department for its strict enforcement during Christmas.

The practice of shooting torpedoes or cannon crackers is dangerous to life and limb and when the ordinance was passed by the council it was intended as a means of protection for pedestrians. Horses are very likely to scare at the sudden discharge and a runaway would endanger the lives of scores of persons. Aside from this there is grave danger of the explosives inflicting serious injuries to persons on the streets.

A violation of this city law is punishable by a fine and Mayor Hinton has issued a warning that the practice will not be tolerated.
